DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on 4 March 2004.
Claims 2-4 are pending in this application.

Response to Amendment

2. The Examiner acknowledges Applicant's amendment filed on 4 March 2004, and therefore withdraws the previous office action's rejections under the 35 U.S.C. 102 and 35 U.S.C. 103 rejections. Therefore, claims 2-4 are deemed to be allowable over the prior art of record, and Applicant's request for allowance is respectfully granted.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter.
4. The prior art of record (Fraser, Credit Lines with a Twist) teaches a barter credit line that allows a business to buy essential items from other network members before selling its own goods into the system. This credit line is an extension of barter credits, which allow a business to buy essential items from other network members before selling its own goods into the system.

The prior art of record fails to teach a computer-implemented method of scoring a credit applicant, in order to extend a line of credit to said applicant, in a business-to-business trading community wherein the traders offer products and or services in trade, comprising the steps of establishing a cash value score based on the percent of the barter offered by the applicant, which is comprised of product or service, the remainder of the trade comprising cash, inputting the product value score and the cash score value into a computer based registry, and mathematically manipulating the scores to produce a barter credit score, as specified in the specification on page 13, line 8 thru page 14, line 9, and Table 10. For these reasons claim 2 is deemed to be allowable over the prior art of record, and claims 3 and 4 are allowable by dependency.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
